Introduction

Karl Olin from Sweden came over in the middle of the 20th Century, transcribed the early records of Chisago Lake Lutheran Church and published his book Chisago Lake-Församlingen i Minnesota—in Swedish. Copies of that book are now scarce and those in existence in most cases have not stood up well.

The book has been a valuable research tool for doing research on the earliest immigrants to Chisago Lake Colony in the Center City area, as well as the growth of the church itself.

Since I have done research on just about all of the early immigrants who joined the church in the 1850's and 1860's, I thought it might be a worthwhile supplement to Karl Olin's book if I would take down his entry for each family and tell something about their beginnings in Sweden and follow up with what happened to the family after the 1860's.

I began the project when I visited the Emigrant Institute, Växjö, Sweden, in 1999. I had proposed to the Institute the project I had in mind; and they had offered me a scholarship to work on the project at the Institute, which I did for five weeks, thanks to Ulf Beijböm and his staff.

Armed with the names, birth dates, and home parishes of most of the early members of Chisago Lake Lutheran Church, I went to work on the birth records in the parishes with the idea of adding a couple of generations to what was known from the church entries in Center City. I did as much as I could squeeze in during the 17 days in May that the Institute was open.

After returning home, I worked on census records, newspaper items, obituaries and cemetery records, as well as biographical dictionaries and family histories, to add what I could to the families who made up the first settlers in the Center City area.

Eventually I expanded the information to all Swedes who settled in the county between 1850 and about 1885 and organized sister congregations in Almelund, Chisago City, Fish Lake, Harris and others later. Also, I could not forget the Swedes who started the Swedish Methodist Episcopal congregation of Center City which continued in Lindstrom, and the Baptists who moved to Isanti County. But the focus in this book is only on those who actually joined Chisago Lake Lutheran Church during its first two decades.

You will find in bold face the original entry as recorded by Karl Olin. Below that you will find "My Comments." The comments will add whatever additionally I have found regarding that family. Even though the bold face is in Swedish, I believe that most people can figure out the main words like född (born), död (died or dead), Inskriften (became a member), emigrerade (emigrated), föräldrar (parents in most cases), syskon (siblings), döpt (baptized, christened).

Olin has the book divided into 1855 and 1860. I have used his divisions as well as pages (Sidan 1, 2, etc.). In the second half the people are divided by Rotes (1-6), which I have indicated with each entry. Births, marriages and deaths are listed at the end.

Index

On the following pages is an index of heads of families and spouses, as well as unmarried persons who joined Chisago Lake Lutheran Church from its beginning on 12 May 1854 until about 1870. Karl Olin, who transcribed the entries, divided them into two periods. One is labeled 1855 and the other 1860. It looks like all entries that took place before 1860 are found in the 1855 or first half of the book, and those after 1860 in the second half of the book. I have not indexed children of the household heads—only those who are underlined as heads of households or single adults.

I have altered the spellings in a few cases—the Anderssons, Carlssons, Larssons, Magnussons and Peterssons. I have dropped the second “s” in those names, since just about all of them made that change themselves. The Swedish spelling was used by Karl Olin, a native Swede, in all cases, even if the person had already changed his/her name.
